HOLD ME NOW

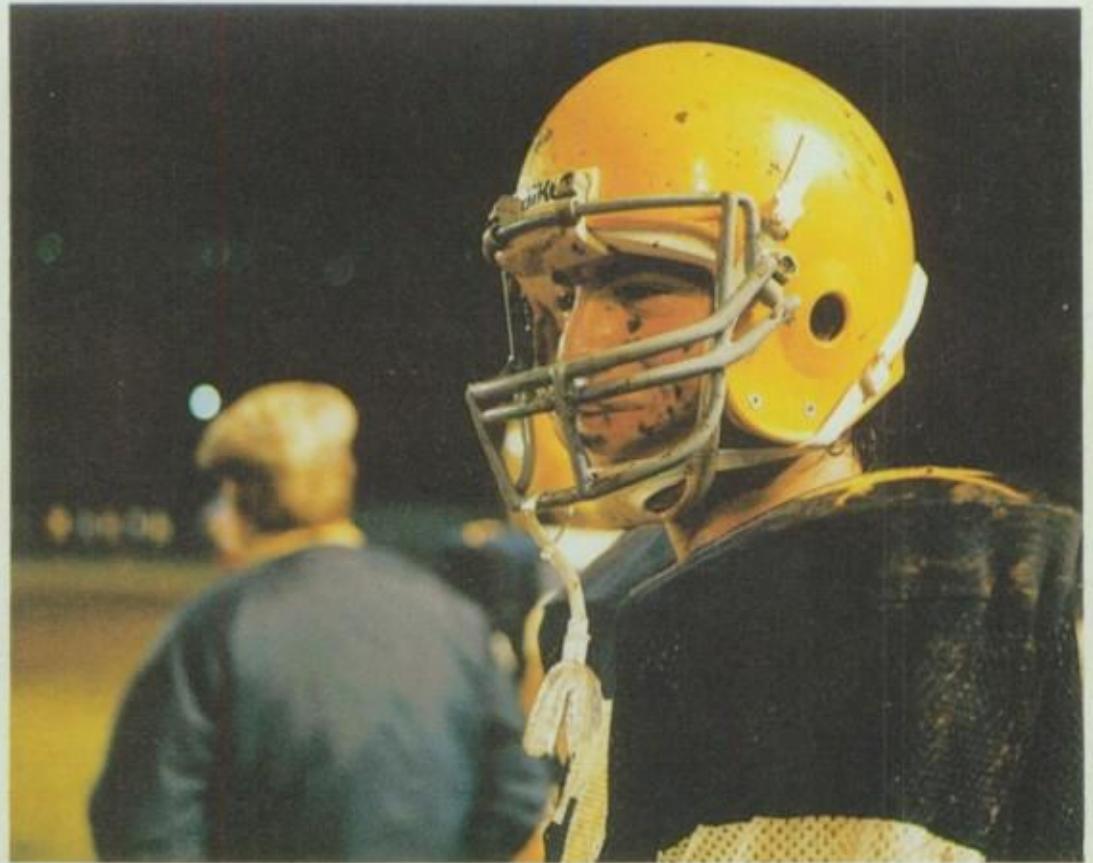

This year's homecoming game against West Valley was unique. Due to heavy rains, our field was a "mud bowl". During the pre-game celebration, the senior members of the varsity "awarded" their mothers corsages. The band, drill team, and cheerleaders presented the fans with a pre-game show. During half-time, the band played the theme from "Rocky" titled "Gonna Fly Now" and "Centerfold," while the drill team performed an excellent routine. Shannon Saylor was crowned the 1982-83 Homecoming Queen. Throughout half-time there was an impressive fireworks display. The spirit of the senior class continued the tradition of the "S". Despite the mud, we slipped through the Ram's defense for a 21-7 victory. During the post-game celebration, Coach Lorrain was "accidentally" tossed in the mud.

MR. SCIENCE

LEO J. COZZA

BORN

JANUARY 5, 1922

DIED

MAY 6, 1983

Mr. Cozza was not an emotionalist. He did not wear his heart on his sleeve. He withstood many difficult encounters, and it did not show. A wave or slight smile were strong signs of friendship or approval from Mr. Cozza. He was the quiet force in the school department and in the classroom.

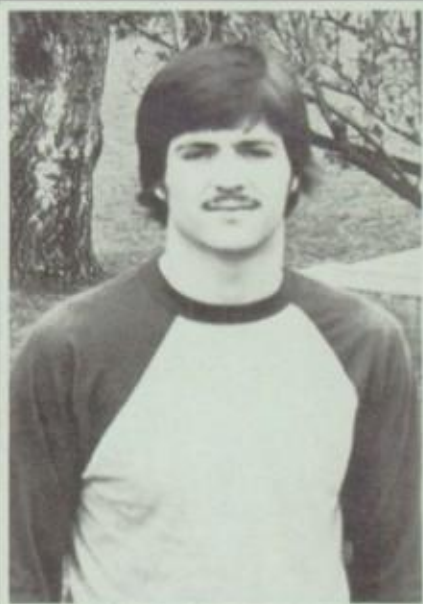

He was always a professional but at the same time was very at ease around his students and fellow teachers. He was sage and he was subtle. In fact, so subtle in the way he made statements, that sometimes his unexpected jokes went undetected for several minutes.

Students in Mr. Cozza's classroom got to learn by the Cozza method - a quiet, dignified, and disciplined approach. Those who took his courses often returned for visits year after year as they progressed through the educational system and on to careers.

Leo Cozza had a quiet dignity and had a great deal of class. He enjoyed his job. He gave much to his students. He was always considerate and tolerant to other people. He devoted his working life to others. His reward- the success of his students. Mr. Leo Cozza was a man who enjoyed his life and, through his example of contentment, urged people around him to do so.

High School.

We entered wide-eyed, unseasoned.
So much to drink in — time filled with clubs, roller bus rides, dances.
The newness, the excitement.

The Seniors.

We hadn't planned on them being quite so big.
Dutifully, we became their followers, traveled in packs, wore balloons in our hair.
But even the seniors couldn't stifle our craziness.
The craziness only freshmen can generate.
They shake their heads. "Typical freshmen." That label never fit.

Sophomores. Can't be too crazy now, they'll think you're a freshman.

The days of Mom carting you around dwindle. One by one, licenses appear.
Dented old cars, AM radios, Yakima Ave.

No longer followers, yet not quite leaders

We're Juniors now, upperclassmen. That's us on Varsity.

No one tells us what to do, though seniors try.

Rivalry sparks, intensifies. Spirit Week is war.
We come within inches of denying the seniors their Spirit Cup.
Our time will come.

Now, our time is here.

We stand for the last time, together. Surrounded by faces that time has made familiar.

Will time now fade the friendships we've taken four years to build?

Years and cheers.

Remember homecoming? Football in a foot of mud; fireworks, corvettes.

The S... soggy, but burning.

Remember basketball? All the way to State.

The victories, the defeats.

The B.R.A.

Remember Senior Ball? A night to reminisce, a night to look ahead.

A year filled with friendships and food fights; decisions, yet doubts.
Everything we did, we knew we did for the last time.

And now, we can look back with pride.

We vowed to be different from all classes before us, and we were.
We reached out to touch, and we grew.

We've left a trail behind us, fit for the best to follow.

BEHIND US FIT FOR

THE BEST TO FOLLOW

GRADUATION OF 1983

Three valedictorians shared honors in the 1983 graduation exercises. Kristy Kappenman, Denise Stewart and Amy Ward were named co-valedictorians, and Michelle Harp was named salutatorian.

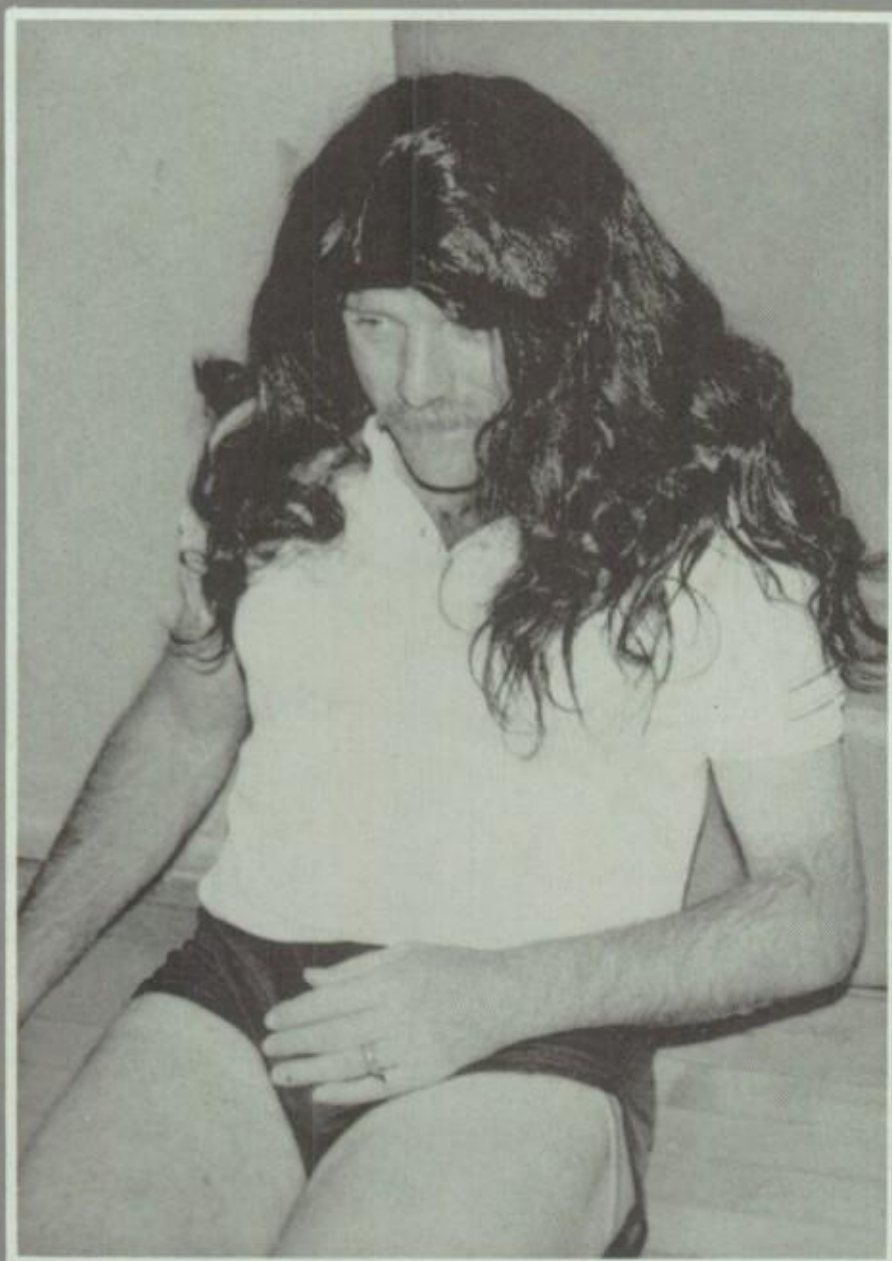

One hundred and ninety-five seniors received their diplomas from School Board Members Beverly Hanna and Jody Hurst, Principal Lynn Sterns, and Wayne Lalley, senior class advisor.

Brian Harris, class chosen speaker, spoke on the topic: "The Assembly Line." Faculty chosen speaker, Duane Morris, chose "The Intersection" for his topic. A welcoming address was delivered by Superintendent Jay Tuman. Awards were presented by Duane Oberlander, assistant principal, Merl Brothers, assistant principal, and Wayne Lalley, class advisor.

Traci Simmerman sang "The Theme from Mahogany" and the Vikolairs, directed by Carl North, sang "Brothers and Sisters." The Viking Band, directed by Dan Wallbaum, played the Processional and Recessional.

As the seniors left the Capitol Theater, they donned their sunglasses. They were greeted by friends and relatives outside the Theater. Twelve years of hard work and study had come to an end.

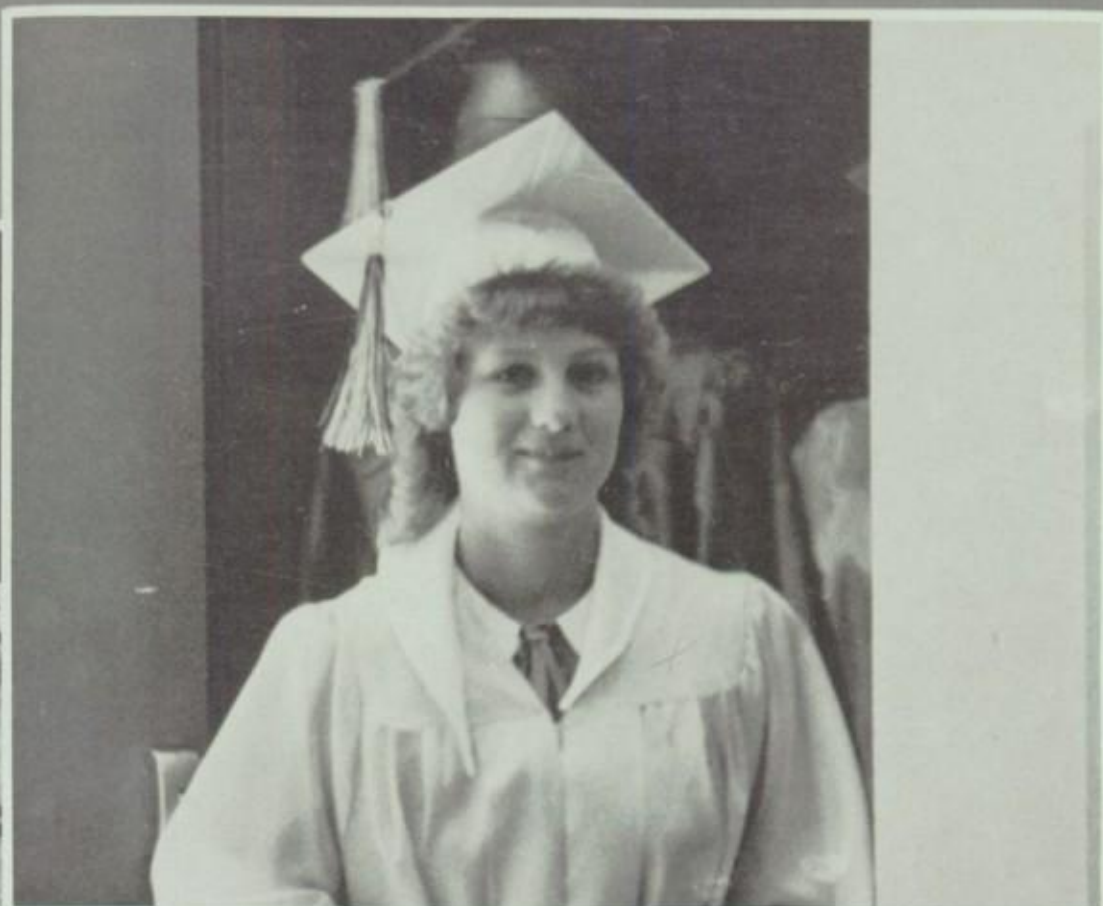

SENIOR PARTY AND . . .

The all-night senior party, held at the YMCA, provided non-stop ping-pong, pool, swimming, dancing, etc. The senior's parents provided entertainment in the form of a "riotous" homecoming game — complete with half-time entertainment. Mr. Lalley made an excellent Drill Team member while Ms. Bob Archer reigned as the homecoming queen.

'Gandhi' takes eight Oscars

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Gandhi" dominated the 55th Academy Awards with eight Oscars Monday night, including best picture and the best actor Ben Kingsley. Meryl Streep was named best actress for her role as the tragic Polish concentration camp inmate.

"E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial," the movie about a boy who befriends a creature from outer space, has become the all-time box office champion, finished second in the sweepstakes with four Oscars.

Jessica Lange, as the soap opera star in "The Hours," and Louis Gossett Jr., as a fair drill sergeant in "Boyz n the City," and a Gentleman, "porting actress and...

It was an evening of no... with all the major awards going to the favorites.

"Gandhi" the epic biography of the apostle of non-violence who led India to independence, won the best director prize for Richard Attenborough, who struggled for 20 years to finance the project.

Attenborough, in his acceptance speech, commented on Gandhi's influence on Martin Luther King and Poland's Lech Walesa. The actor-director said the message of Gandhi was that "we in the 20th century surely could find other ways of solving our problems than by blowing the other man's head off."

It was the second year in a row...

Welcome

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Barney Clark, the world's first and only recipient of a permanent artificial heart, died in the University of Utah Medical Center Wednesday, his 112th day with the device Monday, November 13, 6 a.m.

Three of them are somewhere Naches and the Nile. It's out. They've come here eating was bad in the Saturday and Sunday, before them had left only and spikes. They wanted to a new area. So they left Selah early in the morning, two brothers and a friend in a pick-up truck, for the Nile up Chinook Pass.

They were coming back that night so no one brought extra food. They hadn't dressed for bad weather and they hadn't brought first-aid. The trip would be short.

David Smith, Mike Monson and his younger brother Chris Monson, reached the Nile at about 6:30 a.m. They'd skipped school for the day, and a clear mountain day was dawning before them. They drove down mountain roads in search of good Elk hunting ground. Up ahead the road forked. They took a path to their right and it led

Each year, a select group of four seniors is chosen to represent Selah High School in academic competition against schools from the Yakima Valley. Students are nominated for their academic excellence and compete at KYVE TV in a single elimination quiz contest. The contests are televised weekly throughout the year, until the winner of the Apple Bowl is determined. The contest is sponsored by KYVE television and Josten's.

Officers: Cindy Holloway, Sally Sue Martinen, Colleen Burham.

French Club began the year with their annual dessert. The dessert was followed by several activities which included: a French candy sale; a computer match-up followed by a dance; and the Valentine's Day carnation sale. First year French students traveled to the University of Washington to visit language classes while the second year students dined at Birchfield Manor. The year was drawn to a close with the first annual ice cream social where awards for outstanding students were presented.

SPANISH CLUB

Vice President, Cheryl Armstrong; President, Andy Ergeson.

The Spanish Club's Sixth Annual Mexican Dinner was held in September and was quite successful. The Club held a school dance which brought in more needed funds for its activities. A raffle was the last fund raiser.

The major club activity has been to produce an hour long variety program. This program consists of several activities, including a one-act play called El viejo celoso which was written by the great Spanish writer Cervantes. Also, there are three short humorous skits in Spanish: No andes sucio, Nicanor, Peleando y enamorados, and Los tres osos. A dancing group performs three folk dances: "El jarabe tapatio," "Guadalajara", and a polka to the tune of "Flor de Mexico." The students will travel to colleges and other schools in the spring to perform for audiences of other Spanish students. Another worthwhile activity has been weekly Spanish conversation sessions. The participants in the variety program are Andy Ergeson, Eric Jaderlund, Ron Farrel, Bill Reynolds, José-Maria Prado, Francisca Prado, Sheryl Duncan, and Anne Marie Seward.

The last Club event of the year will be the annual Spanish Club's Awards Ceremony where outstanding club members and other Spanish students are honored and given prizes.

CAMP COUNSELOR

HELP! HELP!

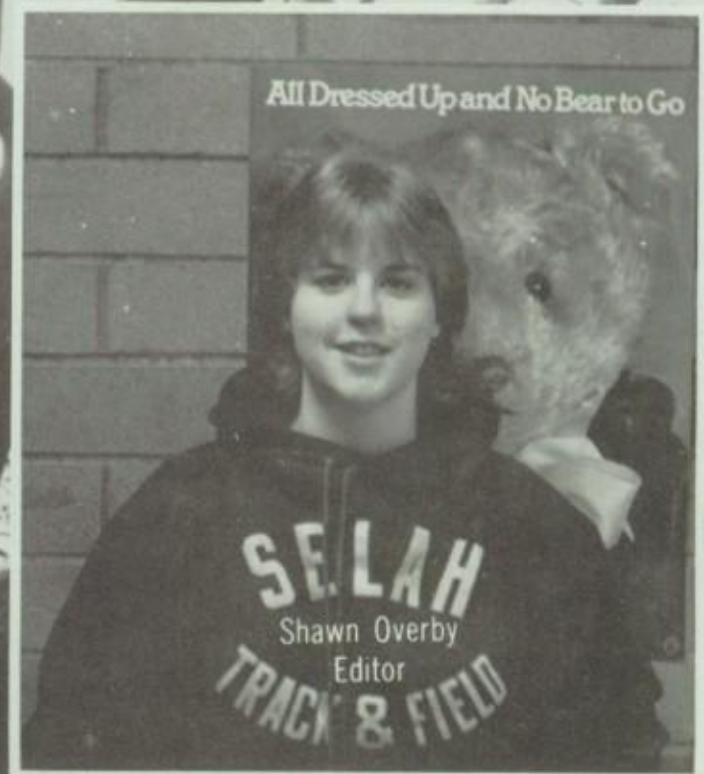

Follow the yellow brick road.

Watcha' up to?

Is' every body ready to start?

Despite frequent temper flair-ups, personality conflicts, and problems with the darkroom, this year's FRUITSPUR promises to be one of the best yearbooks ever produced at Selah High School. Due to rising costs and lack of adequate time, we decided to charge a dollar extra to have the person's name stamped on the cover. We also sponsored a Senior T-shirt sale to raise much needed funds. The staff and I would like to extend our appreciation to Mrs. Fowler for her help and support during the year. I would like to say "Thanks a bunch!" to all staff members and photographers for helping make this yearbook special.

V.S.A.

1982-83 was the year of the "name change" for Pep Club. We officially changed our name to Viking Spirit Association, which is more descriptive of our activities at Selah High School. As a spirit organization, we promote a wide variety of activities throughout the year. These include selling programs and taking tickets at athletic events; making posters; decoration and serving for the football banquet; sponsoring the Harvest Hop and Spirit Dances; selling spirit-promoting products; and other activities. We ended the year with our 2nd Annual Awards Banquet where Year-End Awards for leadership, service, spirit, and high point activity, as well as activity pins, were awarded.

Eighty Three

ACTIVITIES

SPIRIT

We are number one.

She's my "Lollipop Kid."

You're my number 1 pumpkin!

SPIRIT

Inspite of all the mud, each class showed their spirit by dressing up. Monday was Hat Day; Tuesday was Halloween Costume Day; Wednesday was Jock Day; Thursday was "Punk" or "Preppy" Day; and Friday was the traditional Blue and Gold Day. Freshman Initiation was changed from the traditional Friday to Monday.

Seven hours and Homecoming Queen and Court.

WEEK

This year, class competitions were an exciting aspect of pep assemblies. The competitions followed the following schedule: "Hat Knock Off" Monday; "Balloon Blow Up" Tuesday; "Class Officer's Race" Wednesday; "Obstacle Course" Thursday; and "Tug of War" Friday. In the tradition of Spirit Week, seniors won the Spirit Cup.

SENIOR PLAY

Lord, hear our prayers.

Hey Mom, look at me.

It's a bird, it's a plane, it's God's favorite.

Not another lecture!

We're not snobs, are we?

I'll never leave you again!

Oh, my God!

"GOD'S FAVORITE"

Wanna wrestle?

Oh Lord, not again!

Mom, come on please let me go!

Don't talk to my babies that way!

SPANISH PLAY

The Spanish Club show was presented for Spanish students twice in April. In addition, the players performed for Whitman college students in Walla Walla and for Whitworth College students in Spokane. The show featured two short skits: "No andes sucio, Nicanor" and "Los Tres Osos"; a one act play by Cervantes entitled El Viejo Celoso; and three Mexican dances "Gudalajara," "El jarabe tapatio," and a polka "Flor de Mexico." In the finale, the group sang their rendition of "Pancho Lopez." The players were Sheryl Duncan, Francisca Prado, José Prado, Eric Jaderlund, and Bill Reynolds.

Ellie,
do you know how you feel about this year?
I know now a feel about this year, I feel every since the first day of school things I have been going I just hope we all can have some last, with out fighting.
I think Saturday I have come to a conclusion that I don't care what people think or say. what I really think would be nice is if a person could do what they want to do, with out all ways having someone telling a person what to do.
I think that would solve most of our problems with the guys.
I think I would be fun for us girls to all get together and go sight seeing.
It would be fun for us girls to go for one day and go sight seeing together. I think it would be a good place to be a friend, well you are a really good friend, but I think you are going to be a great friend. I hope you will be a friend for ever. I hope you will be a friend for always.

Hi, I hope hope we can stay friends for along time
Hope to see you in the future
